

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

People's academy at Morrisville opened Wednesday with an attendance of 131, the largest number in 25 years. The entering class has 86 pupils.

James Evans of Halifax is in the Melrose hospital in Brattleboro with serious burns inflicted when he fell downstairs with a lighted lamp Monday night.

Ronald, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Ring of Wolcott, was badly hurt about the head when a horse struck him with its hoof, while trying to drive off the flies. A deep gash extended from the temple to the back of his head. He will recover.

After working for 27 years in the Boston & Maine railroad shops, Edgar Brown received his first injuries last Saturday in Lyndonville. He was working on top of a car and had started to descend a ladder, when it slipped and he fell some distance, breaking both bones of one wrist and badly cutting his face.

Leon Richardson of Worcester, has just met his father, Edward Richardson, whom he had never seen. Leon was born after his father went to Massachusetts to make his home and when his father came to Worcester last week to visit him and his brother, Dean, they met for the first time. The son is 35 years old.

Hydraulic and electrical engineers have been surveying the big water power on the property of R. P. Redmond in Cambridge, and the latter will develop the power and furnish electric lights for the town. The town has decided to accept his proposition. It is said the price will be reasonable and that an effort will be made to develop new industries in these villages to use the power.

The body of George F. Sanborn was found by a searching party in Concord Saturday, after he had been absent from his boarding place for some hours. There were no indications of suicide or foul play and death is supposed to have occurred suddenly from heart trouble. Mr. Sanborn was 57 years old and a man of high moral character and active in church work.

John Hill, a Newport young man, aged 18 years, was badly hurt Saturday when he was caught in machinery connected with a gasoline pump and turned over several times. He was freed by the use of his gloves. His left leg was fractured at the ankle and his right arm was broken above the wrist, besides numerous bruises.

As H. H. Allen and a neighbor were driving in Mount Holly Sunday, the horse suddenly fell forward onto its head. After getting the animal to its feet it had a severe hemorrhage from the nose and just then a wound was discovered in its neck. A veterinarian, who was consulted, pronounced it made by a spent bullet, fired evidently by accident from considerable distance. People living in that vicinity heard the report of a gun before the horse dropped, but the occupants of the wagon did not hear it.

HIS DREAM CAME TRUE.

James Bilado Fell from Tree in Burlington and Was Injured.

Burlington, Sept. 11.—James Bilado, of 83 North avenue, an employee of the city park department, was badly injured yesterday in a fall from a tree on King street, east of Church street.

He was rendered unconscious, one arm was broken and he sustained contusions on the face and head.

Bilado was chopping a limb off a big cottonwood tree, and was standing perhaps 30 feet above the ground.

Suddenly the limb which he was cutting split and gave way, and Bilado lost his balance and fell to the ground, head first. The limb also fell part way, catching in a crotch of the tree, but went down far enough to strike the chopper on the head. As the man struck the ground he rebounded and rolled down the hill for a distance. A fellow worker rushed to his assistance and the police ambulance was called. Dr. Baylies also was summoned and Bilado was quickly conveyed to his home.

A coincidence in connection with the accident was that when Bilado came to work yesterday he remarked that he dreamed the night before that he was going to be hurt that day. He has been climbing trees for the city for four years. A year ago he cut one hand badly with an axe.

RICHFORD SCHOOLS CLOSED

Because Authorities Fear Spread of Infantile Paralysis.

Richford, Sept. 11.—The schools of this village did not open yesterday, the authorities taking this precaution to prevent the spread of infantile paralysis. There are four cases of this dread disease in Richford.

Greater Vermont Association Exhibit at State Fair.

The greater Vermont association will exhibit at the state fair pictures, maps and charts, reflecting the work of the association and its constituent organizations in Vermont. There will be collections of maps and pictures illustrating the carrying out of some of the policies of the association, such as "The Extension of the County Agent System," "Better Acquaintance Tours," "Good Roads Month," "Industrial Day." Boards of Trade have been requested to send in matter which illustrates their work and development.

The Bennington County Vermont Improvement association is to send in a large exhibit. The growth of Vermont industries will be set forth concretely by pictures and charts. There will be a collection of photographs showing the improved street lighting in several communities, and a remarkable collection of photographs showing the mountain surroundings of a Vermont city. The Green Mountain club will exhibit maps and pictures showing the attractions and the development of the long trail.

The Greater Vermont association hopes in a very limited space at the state fair to illustrate the growth of Vermont commercial and civic organizations and their "Team Work for Vermont development."

Only Sure Corn Cure Ever Known

"GETS-IT" the New Way, a Drops Do It

To endure the pains and tortures caused by a little thing like a corn is ridiculous, simply because it is unnecessary. The new-plan corn cure, "GETS-IT," is the first one ever known to remove corns without pain, without and without trouble. This is why it is the biggest-selling corn cure in existence today. It is now used by millions, because it does away with sticky tape, with plaster and cotton rings that shift their position and press down onto the corn, with salves that "raw up" the toe, with knives, razors and files, clawing and pulling at a corn.

"GETS-IT" is applied in two seconds. Two drops applied with the glass rod do the work. Pain goes, the corn shrivels, vanishes. Accept no substitute. Try it on any corn, wart, callous or bunion to-night.

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere. It is a bottle, or sent direct by Dr. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.
